

I have a passion for teaching kids to become readers, to become comfortable with a book, not daunted. Books shouldn't be daunting, they should be funny, exciting and wonderful; and learning to be a reader gives a terrific advantage.

Nearly the end of the year and we have concluded with a wonderful event – the Phendulani Literacy Quiz. Co-ordinated by Marj Brown in Johannesburg, this quiz inspires learners to love reading and is a means of encouraging the teachers to get involved in their learners' reading.

Eight of our schools participated in the quiz this year and everyone had a great morning, in particular the winning schools. All learners were given Certificates of Participation, winning schools received certificates and prizes included chocolates for spot questions and books for the top 3 teams of learners.
